

Your contribution

Should you wish to make a formal submission, please consider the questions below, noting that you do not have to respond to all of the questions, instead you may choose to respond to only some of them.

1. What are your suggestions to improve the Victorian community's understanding of mental illness and reduce stigma and discrimination?

2. What is already working well and what can be done better to prevent mental illness and to support people to get early treatment and support?

Get rid of paedophiles.

3. What is already working well and what can be done better to prevent suicide?

I want euthanasia. I don't want to live in [REDACTED] for ever

4. What makes it hard for people to experience good mental health and what can be done to improve this? This may include how people find, access and experience mental health treatment and support and how services link with each other.

Psychiatrist & medications work for me. Psychiatrist helps me

5. What are the drivers behind some communities in Victoria experiencing poorer mental health outcomes and what needs to be done to address this?

One patient was self harming got good support & has stopped now
A nurse enters me every day to have to have a shower & change my clothes - I do that every 2nd day

6. What are the needs of family members and carers and what can be done better to support them?

Send him the paper work so he knows what's happening to me

7. What can be done to attract, retain and better support the mental health workforce, including peer support workers?

8. What are the opportunities in the Victorian community for people living with mental illness to improve their social and economic participation, and what needs to be done to realise these opportunities?

Some one come to care to my place to give me my medication

9. Thinking about what Victoria's mental health system should ideally look like, tell us what areas and reform ideas you would like the Royal Commission to prioritise for change?

hit people out on leave from [REDACTED] rather than keeping them here too long

10. What can be done now to prepare for changes to Victoria's mental health system and support improvements to last?

11. Is there anything else you would like to share with the Royal Commission?
